

Get back the trust and respect with local people to find out the trouble makers in our society it's up to the legal system to prosecute them with stiffer sentences the Gardai can only bring these people to the Court house doors to be let out again it does nothing for the Garda moral.