

██████████

The management structure and qualification of management needs to be addressed. Needs to be a direct entry programme where suitable qualified persons from other police forces can be recruited into management positions. You need to break the culture of back covering at upper rank levels. Senior positions such as commissioner deputy commissioner need to be on time dependant contracts of not more than five years .